Parents' Day Plans Set By Senate

The Student Senate has made some progress this summer in planning for Parents' Day in the fall.

The event, which could more appropriately be called "Parents' Weekend," has been set officially for the weekend of September 29-30.

The Senate is investigating the possibility of having a well-known speaker on campus Saturday, September 29. This would have to be approved, however, by the recently formed Senate-Faculty Lecture Board, according to Senate president Bob Millis.

On Sunday, September 30, the Senate is planning departmental programs, exhibits and open-houses, a one-act play, and probably a debate, according to Millis.

Millis said the Senate was getting "excellent cooperation" from departments in setting up some type of program. He said, among others, the University Council for the United Nations is planning a program and Booth Library will have an open-house.

The Senate is also planning to put out a brochure for freshman during Orientation Week to give them information on the functioning of the Senate.

The next Senate meeting will be held at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow in the Senate Room.

Not only are his pitching duties making the news, but his work with the bat is too. In a game with green River, Wyo., Kimball hit a run-producing single in the bottom of the tenth inning to win the game 3-2.

With Kimball on the team, the First place trophy in the Sixth Army tournament held in late August in San Francisco may end up at Fort Douglas.
